NEW PRESIDENT OF MSS

John V. Ballun begins 2010 as newly elected president of Manufacturing Standardization Society (MSS). Mr. Ballun has served on the MSS Board of Directors since 2001 and most recently as First Vice President. He has a BS in mechanical engineering from the Illinois Institute of Technology (IIT) and an MBA from Northern Illinois University and is currently the Vice President of Engineering at Val-Matic Valve & Mfg. Corp. He has been working with valves for the waterworks and power industries for over 30 years and been involved with MSS for most of that time. He also serves on several American Waterworks Association (AWWA) valve standard committees.

Since its establishment in 1924, MSS has been dedicated to developing standards for global application in the Valve and Fittings Industry in cooperation with other standardizing bodies and regulatory authorities. MSS is an ANSI-accredited standards developer. For more information, visit the MSS website at www.mss-hq.org.
